vide ways and means to meet the expenses incurred, by a loan in some shape, and when the fact that the govern-ment is in want of a large sum of money and must resort to a direct or indirect loan to raise it, keeps the money market in a very feverish condition, and commercia matters in a very unsettled state, there is no good real son why immediate action upon the matter should not take place. If Congress would do nothing, or attempt to do nothing, no one could or would complain; the people would willingly not the matter than the people would willingly not the matter than the matter t would willingly pay the members their six and eigh dollars a day—but instead of this, the first movement made after the session opens, is to propose alterations, modifications, or a total repeal of the principal laws in operation, regulating the financial or commercial affairs of the country, and after the introduction of resolutions to that effect, let them lay on the below or somewhere else out of the way, until just at the close of the session. Those interested in the alterations or modifications proposed, or in the permanency of the original bill, are kept in a state of uncertainty during that seeing underlied. in a state of uncertainty during that session, undecided how to act or what course to pursue. Legislation in Congress appears to be regulated by any thing else but the actual interests of the country. Business generally cannot but be injuriously affected by the course pursued by Congress, in all matters connected with commercial affairs, and it is on this account that we have such a horror of the long sessions.

months, and it would puzzle an expert mathematician to figure up what has actually been accomplished, benefitting in any way the commerce or domestic trade of the country. We can easily tell what should have been done and what has been left undone, but we cannot tell what will be done. The three great measures of the seswhat will be done. The three great measures of the ses-sion, after seven months sitting, remain just where they were the first week, and there is at present every proba-bility of their not being touched until the last week of the session. There is no remedy for this thing; it is nothing new in the history of Congressional proceedings, and it is possible all classes interested may in time get used to these delays, and go on in their regular business, gardless of what Congress may be doing, or what it may omit doing. Those who do so will, in the end, come out the best, while those who are continually watching the movements at Washington, for the purpose of regulating their operations accordingly, will in the end find them into difficulties from which they will be unable to extricate themselves. We have too much legislation in this country and too many legislators.

We annex the resolutions of the London Committee of Bondholders of the State of Indians, in relation to the arrangements made by the legislature of that State, last r, to resume the payment of a portion of the interest on the debt. It appears that the terms agreed on were satisfactory, and unanimously accepted. RESOLUTIONS OF THE LONDON COMMITTEE OF INDIANA

Ist. That under the circumstances stated in the Report of Mr. Charles tatter, confirmed by a letter from his Excellency James Whiteomb, dated ath Feb. last, addressed to Bir. Falmer, i is the opinion of the undersigned that it will be for the literate of the bondholders of the State of Indiana to concer in the principle laid down in the act of the legislature, larged at Indianapolis on the 19th January last, for the adjustment of the public debt of that State, by the pament of one moiety of the principal and Indiana the January last, for the adjustment of the public debt of that State, by the pament of one moiety of the principal and Indiana the January last, on the state, by the proper ty and tolls of he Canal from the State line adjoining Ohio to Evansyle on the Ohio river, such property to be assigned to three trustees, and the State to be freed from responsibility on that portion of the debt and interest so to be sected.

est so to be sectived.

2d. That Mr.C lutter be requested to apply to the bondholders of the state of Indiana, resident in the United States, for their co-operation with the bondholders in Europe, in carrying out the arrangement upon the principle stated in the foregoing resolution.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. WASHINGTON, Monday, June 29, 1846. In Sennte. PAY OF VOLUNTEERS.

Mr. Januages presented a resolution of the Legisla-ture of Texas, relative to pay of volunteers called into

Mr. Johnson, of Louisiana, presented resolutions of the Legislature of that State, relating to the removal of obstructions in the Mississippi river. J. M. CLAYTON gave notice that he would introduce a bill for the relief of the heirs of Robert Fulton.

Mr. Bagny offered a resolution to appoint a select committee, to report a plan for reporting debates and proceedings of the Senate.

Sundry resolutions of inquiry relative to defences and improvement of rivers, and erection of light houses in the State of Texas, were adopted.

MEETING OF THE SENAPE.

The resolution heretofore offered by Mr. Bagsv, to meet hereafter at 11 o'clock, was adopted—year 30, nays

The resolution of Mr. Simmons, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for specific estimates of revenue to be derived from measures proposed in his report of the 10th inst., was adopted after being amended, on motion of Mr. Davies, so as to call for specific estimates of the $54,000,000, which the Secretary says is annually drawn from the people, for the benefit of manufacturers.

AUTHORITY TO BAISE VOLUNTEERS.

The resolution offered by Mr. Johnson, requiring the Secretary of War to inform the Senate whether he has authorized any person to raise regiments (alluding to Ba-ker, Yell, and Price of the House), and if so, by what authority, was adopted.

A resolution was adopted to appoint a Select Committee to revise the rules of the Senate.

Sundry private bills were read a third time and passed A bill for the relief of John Crowel was recommended, and then several attempts were made to get up bills in their regular order, but without success.

The Senate then proceeded with the bill to reduce a nd graduate the price of the public lands. This bill proposes to divide the land into five classes. The first class to be five years in market, at $1 25 per acre; second class, ten years, at $1; third class, fifteen years, at 75 cents; fourth class, 20 years, at 50 cents; and the fifth class, 30 years, at 25 cents. Lands remaining unsold at the end of any of these periods are to go into the next lowest class.

Mr. Dayron offered an amendment making a sixth class, at 12 cents per acre.

Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, took the floor in opposition to some of the details of the bill, as that for giving away the public lands which had been thirty years in market, to the States in which they are located.

Mr. BREESE concurred with the objections offered by Mr. Johnson, and said he would propose an amendment at the proper time.

Mr. PENNYBACKER denied the power of Congress to give lands to individual States, when they were granted to us expressly for the common benefit of the whole.

Mr. Barrse replied, that ceding them to the States might inure to the common benefit, as well as selling them.

The discussion was continued by Messra Miller, Archi

The bill was then postponed until Wednesday; and a message having been received from the President, the Senate went into executive session, and after some hours spent therein, adjourned.

House of Representatives.

MEETING OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Thomrson, of Penn., offered a resolution that the House sit until 7 o'clock, with a recess from 3 to 5, until the taris bill is disposed of.
On motion of Mr. Houston, of Ala, this was amend-so as to prohibit a recess, and then adopted, the t being suspended for that object.

So, until Thursday next, they will sit each 1 y 10 o'clock, A. M., to 7 o'clock P. M.

THE TARIFF DEBATE.

One or two bills from the Senate were referre: 01 propriate committees, and then the House wen. i...
Committee of the Whole, and resumed the consideration of the bill for the reduction of the duties on imports.

Mr Tinnatts first addressed the Committee. He de fined his position on all the great questions of the day. He was a 54 40 man, and a Rio Grande man, and mainained that our soldiers would have defended the former line of boundary as successfully as they had the latter .-He wished the injunction of secrecy could be removed from the Senate's proceedings, so that it might be seen whether the President had preserved his consistency, or had backed out. He was in favor of a modification of the present tariff, but he was also opposed to the ultra no-

Mr. PAYNE next got the floor, and made a threshin boistorous speech against the protective policy. It was all nonsense and absurdity to contend that this question was one between the labor of this country, and the pau-Mr. Selden followed in favor of free trade, and an alteration of the present tariff. His argument was so nicely spun, that, for some time, no one knew which side he was on. Mr. Goodynan followed, and spoke in a very precise and measured style against the present tariff, and in favor of a modification. His speech was a free trade essay, credibly delivered, composed with much care. He de clared his preference for Hungerford's bill. Mr. STRONG next got the floor, and advocated the same side of the question.

Mr. Kaurrman followed against the present tariff, and in justification of our government in claiming Texas to the Rio Grande, and sending our army there.

Mr. BLANCHARD next got the floor, and made a very interesting speech in favor of the present tariff. He was made the members laugh heartily at his dry humor

BY THE MAILS.

WASHINGTON, June 28, 1846. General Taylor has been appointed Major General of the army, under the late act—and Col. W. O. Butler, of Kentucky, Major General of Volunteers, under the supplementary act passed a few days since. No other appointments have as yet been made. A democratic Senator from the Northwest, has been disappointed in not receiving one of these appointments. The splendid missions of England and France are soon to become vacant. There is a difficulty in filling them from the democratic side of the house. Some say Mr. King of Alabama, now in France, will be Secretary of State, in the place of Mr.

will be Secretary of State, in the place of Mr. chanan, who goes on the bench of the Supreme Court, instead of taking the peace of Mr. McLane. Where a fit Minister for England can be found, none knows, without the President resorts to some gentlemen of the old opposition party.

Inaddition to the seven foreign full missions, as mentioned in a late letter, I might as well add a few more of the principal appointments abroad, filled by Southern men—particularly, as vacancies are about occurring.

Austria—Mr. Sties, of Georgia.

Naples—Mr. Polk, of Tennesses.

Sardina—Mr. Wichliffs, of Kentucky.
Belgium—Mr. Clemson, of South Carolina.

Venezuela—Mr. Shields, of Alabama.

Consul to Liverpoil—Gen. Armstrong, of Tennesses.

Consul at Havana—Gen. Campbell, of Alabama.

All Southern men.

I den't mean to insinuate that Southern gentlemen are not as well qualified as those from any other section—but in the modern democratic principle of distribution, they are fortunate in having so large a proportion. I believe they will all do well. Foreigners still continue to be appointed by Mr. Polk, as American consuls. This principle of allowing such persons to sport the American uniform (all they want) at foreign courts, is absurd, and should be stopped. They are running the thing in the ground.

Mr. Bancroft, it is well said, will leave the Navy Department, and be sent into exile, perhaps to Russia. A Pennsylvanian has been named for the Navy Department.

Mr. Ellmcre, of South Carolina, has come out a for the administration—a real red-hot

Mr. Pickens, of South Carolina, has come out flat-footed for the administration—a real red-hot democrat, dyed in the wool—denounces Mr. Calhoun—and is ready now to take any high office. But the missien to England is beyond his reach.

Whether Mr. Ritchie, in all these contemplated
